

EXTENSION OF THE CURRENT JUNIOR DOMESTIC BY-LAWS

1. REP PLAYER DEFINITION

- a. A representative player is defined as:
 - i. Any player currently registered to a VJBL or State-level representative team
 - ii. Players registered to teams of VJBL Regional level
- b. A player is deemed a representative player:
 - i. While the player remains a current player.
 - ii. For the duration of the current representative season, irrespective of the player ceasing to play in that season for whatever reason.
- c. A player is deemed to not be representative player:
 - i. When the current rep season has expired (for VJBL competition, this currently occurs in late September) and the player is not participating in representative try-outs for the next season.

2. LIMITS UPON REPRESENTATIVE PLAYERS IN JUNIOR DOMESTIC TEAMS.

- a. Teams will be nominated by clubs for competition based upon the following:

Boys		Girls
Number of rep players	Grades for nomination	Number of rep players	Grades for nomination
3 or more	A	3 or more	A
3	A or B	3	A or B
2	A, B or C	2	A, B or C
1	A, B, C or D	1	A, B, C, or D
0	A,B,C, or D	A, B, C, or D

- b. For Winter Season, currently April to September, representative status will be counted as per above.
- c. For Summer Season, currently October to March, the team nomination/registration period will draw upon the representative player’s status per the preceding representative season, to be amended by the end of the grading period.
- d. CJDC reserves the right to promote “A” grade team/s to next age division for the betterment of the players and competition
- e. The governing committee of the competition may, at its discretion, combine grades in the interests of grade viability.

3. DECLARATION OF REPRESENTATIVE STATUS

- a. For the purposes of player registration, a club must:
 - i. Provide the means of registration so that each player must declare representative status
- b. In the event of the competition administration becoming aware of any failure to accurately declare representative status per the above:
 - i. If by a club, the administration, at its discretion, may impose one or more of immediate cessation of involvement of the player, a penalty of $50 per game payable by the club to the Association, and team forfeiture of games played.
 - ii. If by a club over multiple occurrences, the administration, at its discretion, may deregister the player, the team and/or the club.

4. PLAYING "OUT OF AGE"

- a. Any representative player participating in an older age group than allowed under eligibility bylaws:
 - i. Is still deemed a rep player
 - ii. Must not play in any team that would then cause that team to exceed the allowable number of rep players for teams in that grade.
